EXPLOSION INJURES FIVE

Seriously Hurt While at Work in Local Branch

Men Rushed to Emer- gency Hospital for Treatment

Five men were the victims of a gas explosion in the Pacific Gas and Electric Company's plant at the foot of Grove street, at 8 o'clock this morning, while at work cleaning out a "wash box." Just what caused the explosion of the gas is not known, but it caught the five men unprepared and burned them all more or less seriously.

The injured are:

A. P. BOYER, 32 years old, living at 512 Eighth street; face and neck badly seared.

NICK LINDICH, 35 years old, 1713 Goss street; burned about face, arms and chest.

W. A. SHIPPY, 42 years old, living at 611 Clay street; burned about chest and face.

WILLIAM DENHAM, 21 years old, 502 East Tenth street; severe burns on left arm and neck.

R. C. HUGHES, 48 years old, living at 2317 Laguna street, San Francisco; burned about face and hands.

The men were all at work cleaning out the wash box when the explosion occurred. Beyond the injury to them the plant was not damaged.

The police ambulance was summoned and the injured men rushed to the Emergency hospital, where their injuries were dressed by Dr. G. G. Reimle, Dr. C. A. De Puy and Stewart Cone. It is not likely that any of the injuries will prove fatal, although they are all of serious character.

A pathetic feature of the accident was that William Denham was to have been married this week. He had intended to take out a marriage license today. His injuries are somewhat less serious than those of his fellow workers, as his face was not badly burned.

All of the victims were fortunate in that their eyes were not injured, and unless complication sets in, it is assured that none will lose their sight.

After the injuries had been dressed by Dr. Reimle and Dr. Irwin, the men were taken to the Merritt hospital, where they will be cared for by the management of the gas company.

JOHN C. ADAMS IS IN CRITICAL DANGER

Stricken With Appendi- citis He Is Hurried to Hospital

Hurriedly rushed from his home to the Merritt hospital in the last stages of appendicitis, John Charles Adams, the banker, and brother of Edson F. Adams, this morning, at 2 o'clock, underwent an operation for appendicitis, and now lies at the hospital in grave peril, according to his physician, Dr. Austin Clarke. Adams has been ill for a week, but not believing it serious, did not call medical aid until last night when his suffering became acute and Dr. Clarke was sent for. Examination convinced the physician that the danger was imminent and time for an operation was almost past. Hurrying the sick man into an automobile, the doctor removed him to the hospital in a race with death; the operating room was hastily prepared, and shortly after 2 o'clock the operation was completed.

No card or dice game for a thing of value may be allowed on the premises.

No private rooms will be permitted on the premises except the private office, lavatory, storeroom and kitchen.

Protests against granting liquor permits will be entertained from residents of the immediate vicinity of the location asked, this being defined as within a radius of 500 feet of the proposed location.

Hotels enjoying permits to sell liquor must be bona fide hotels, having at least 50 bedrooms and a dining room.

Social clubs are defined as having a bona fide membership of at least 100 members.

Social clubs are not forced to give bonds, but must file lists of officers and must observe rules similar to those of the surrounding clubs.

Licenses to be paid are provided for as follows:

Wholesale liquor business, $25 per quarter.

Saloons, $250 per quarter.

Restaurants with bar, $325 per quarter till January 1, 1914; $350 per quarter thereafter.

Hotels without bar, $150 per quarter.

Bordello with bar, $125 per quarter till January 1, 1914; $250 per quarter thereafter.

Rooms without bar, $100 per quarter.

Businesses, $50 per quarter.

YOUNG WOMAN KILLED BY TRAIN

Man With Whom She Was Conversing on Track Is Fatally Injured.

Mrs Emma Margaret Maxwell, 34 years old, living at 1928 Ninety-fourth Avenue, Elmhurst, was instantly killed last evening when she was struck by the Southern Pacific local electric train at Ninety-fourth Avenue and the Boulevard.

Clarence H. Knights, a plumber, living at 3211 Olive street, Elmhurst, with whom Mrs. Maxwell was talking at the time of her death, was probably fatally injured.

His arm was mangled and he is suffering from several bruises and lacerations and probable internal injuries.

This morning Edward Maxwell, husband of the dead woman, asked the police to make an investigation of the tragedy and Inspectors Thomas Gallagher and Harry Green were detailed on the case. They connected with the case but that Mrs. Maxwell was struck by the train when she failed to heed the whistle and step off the track where she was standing with Knights.

According to Engineer J. A. Barnes, engineer of the train, in his testimony given at the railroad investigation this morning, Mrs. Maxwell and Knights were standing on one of the rails. Mrs. Maxwell, he said, had one foot over the rail and the other on the side of the train. She grasped Knights as she fell and dragged him under the wheels.

Knights ran to a corner store for candy for her children and had met Knights, a neighbor, as she was returning. The two were talking when the fatal accident occurred.

Mrs. Maxwell leaves a husband and three small children.

MILLS STUDENTS LEARN COOKERY

these cottages the young women receive their training in modern housekeeping. Members of the faculty as well as visitors, attend the demonstration in cooking. The advanced students are delving into the process of butter-making, fancy baking, desserts and ornamental frostings. The girls lecture upon cooking while they are exhibiting their method of converting the fruits into wholesome viands. The food service and cooking department are catalogued systematically.

Among those registered in home economics are Miss Mary Carmill, Miss Ruth Craig, Miss Ruth Dwyer, Miss Eleanor Dodge, Miss Ethel Hubbard, Miss Mary Hutchinson, Miss Frances Kendall, Miss Florence, Miss Fisher, Steinbeck, Miss Queen Watson, Miss Margaret White and Miss Weeks Woot.

CHINESE IN FRACAS; WOMAN IS INJURED

Ah Gia, 374 Fifth street, was the cause of combat of a fierce affray, which took place at noon today in a Chinese colony at that address when broomsticks, clubs and all sorts of weapons available were used by a dozen or more contestants. When the police arrived on the scene it developed that Ah Gia had been struck by Lee Hilm, her glasses broken and her lip made to bleed. Lee Hilm was taken into custody.

NEW ORDINANCE PASSED BY THE CITY COUNCIL

Liquor Regulations Citizens Desired Are Put Through at Meeting With Only Minor Changes

Bottling establishments, $500 per quarter.

Drugstores, $25 per quarter.

Family liquor store, $125 per quarter.

Winery, $25 per quarter.

Social club, $15 per quarter.

Transient liquor dealer, $500 per quarter.

Reduction of number of saloons to 600 by Jan. 1, 1914, with number of family liquor stores fixed at 40 at same date.

No more than four salaried persons in one block. (This section does not apply to places now in existence.)

Further:

the elimination of saloons from the residence districts.

The unswerving fight to obtain a settlement of the saloon problem in Oakland which has been conducted by the forces of civic decency has aroused the interest of every citizen of Oakland, and a large lobby attended the meeting of the city council this morning as it had become known in some quarters that the ordinance would be before the commissioners that the council had taken the right step and was backed by the voters of Oakland interested in the welfare and progress of the city, was testified by the applause which followed the reading of the roll of commissioners.

Mr. Mott signified his approval of the old.

The action of the commissioners in passing the ordinance practically unchanged showed that they had at last become convinced of the urgency of the demand for reform, and of the fact that the voters of Oakland would not tolerate further delay in the handling of this vital problem.

PRACTICALLY NO COMMENT.

The ordinance was passed to print.

It was given its second reading by unanimous consent and passed to print. There is no comment.

Major Mott made a short statement to the lobby concerning the ordinance, summarizing its points in a few words. Mayor Mott was asked whether the reduction to 200 covered only saloons or saloons and restaurants and other liquor businesses.

The reduction will be to 200 saloons, restaurants and hotels with bars," explained Mayor Mott. "The reduction will become effective Jan. 1, 1914.

"The ordinance provides for an increase in the licenses and this will eliminate a number of the saloons. We have considered the ordinance carefully and from all points of view, and feel that it is the best solution possible to the difficulty. The ordinance has been carefully drawn and speaks for itself. It will mean a real reform in liquor matters in Oakland."

The only radical changes in the license are set forth in the amended ordinance introduced today and the draft of the ordinance as printed in August in THE TRIBUNE were in the matter of licenses on breweries and bottling establishments the licenses on which are raised to $500 per quarter excepting in the case of breweries having a capacity under 300 barrels a month, which will pay only $150 per quarter.

CLOSE LATE NEW YEAR'S.

In the section concerning the closing hours of the sale of liquor the ordinance provides that there shall be no sale of liquor between the hours of 1 and 6 a.m., excepting on New Year's eve and other big holidays when, at the discretion of the chief of police, saloons may remain open for an extra hour, till 2 o'clock in the morning, the hour of closing under the state law.

WHAT IT PROVIDES.

The ordinance carries provision for the increase in the license of regular saloons and cafes to $100 per annum, and carries increases in other kinds of liquor licenses, from breweries to druggists.

It provides for rigid regulation of all saloons, for the prevention of the sale of liquor to women in saloons, for the prevention of gambling in saloons, for prevention of the sale of liquor to minors. Features of the ordinance are regulation of druggist sales of liquor, the regulation of cafes, hotels and restaurants with bars, and the provision for the passage of the ordinance to print.

It is expected that the Bill will receive final passage within eight days and will immediately become law. The step taken in this regard is a prelude to the introduction of a resolution revoking the licenses of some four score saloons and cafes which are considered objectionable by the city council. This action will be taken in the immediate future.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 7.——Federal cooperation with western states in the development of water power was given added impetus today, when Secretary Lane approved the expenditure of $15,000 for an investigation of an Interstate water power project on the Columbia River near the Dalles, Ore.

The State also has appropriated $15,000 for this purpose so that a joint board, composed of representatives of the interior department, engineers of the army and the State of Oregon will have $30,000 available for the work.

A Doctor's First Question Is?

"How are Your Bowels?" A Simple Remedy that Guarantees Good Bowel Action.

Trace the origin of the common ill of life and almost invariably you will find that constipation was the cause. It is not to be expected that a mass of fermented food can remain in the system beyond its time without vitiating the blood and affecting the nerves and muscles. It congests the entire body.

The results are colds, fevers, piles, headaches and nervousness, with its accompanying indigestion and sleeplessness. There is only one thing to do and that is to remove the trouble and when nature seems unable to do it, outside aid is necessary. You will find the best of all outside aids a remedy that many thousands are now using for this very purpose, called Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsi. Many hundreds of letters are received by Dr.

Caldwell and among the enthusiastic letters is one from Lt. G. W. Vaughan, of 523 W. North Decatur, Ill. He is 72 and has had a bad liver and stomach since he came out of the army. He says he tried about everything, but never succeeded in getting permanent relief until he took Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsi. He is never without a bottle in the house, and he is never without good health.

It has untold advantages over pills, capsules and other medical丸子.

NOTED LAWYER IS DEAD; FRIENDS BLAME PRISON

NEW YORK, Nov. 7.—Daniel O'Reilly, widely known as a criminal lawyer, died at his home here yesterday at the age of 62 years. Friends believe that his death was caused by the sentence of five months he served at Blackwell's Island for receiving $35,000 worth of stolen bonds from Aaron J. Bancroft, an aged broker. O'Reilly was associated with the defense in the trials of Nan Patterson, Captain Peter Hains and Harry K. Thaw. For a time he was the attorney for Evelyn Thaw.

LEAVES UNIQUE LEGACY.

NEW YORK, Nov. 7.—A unique legacy has been left to the Metropolitan Museum of Art—the collection of postage stamps valued at $250,000 belonging to the late Max E. Bernheimer. It will be the first collection of its kind in the Metropolitan Museum. It holds more than 50,000 varieties, distributed in 49 volumes.

BROTHERS MURDERED.

MARYSVILLE, Nov. 7.—Will and Stephen Sherman, brothers, were murdered in their cabin in a lonely spot in the mountains two miles from Strawberry Valley, a settlement in the eastern section of Yuba county, according to advices received yesterday. The men had been dead for two or three days when found.

HIPPO TO SWALLOW DEADLY PANAMA FLIES

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 7.—Hundreds of huge hippopotamus may splash about the banks of Lake Gatun and delight the tourists who visit the Panama Canal two years hence, according to information received yesterday when troupes from Pennsylvania arrived from Balboa.

The hippopotamus, although responsible for the destruction of nearly everything that grows wherever it exists, also eliminates the breeding places of millions of death-dealing insects.

Just Plain Bedbug, But Department Calls It Something Else.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 7.—How to get rid of the "Cimex Lectularius" is told in a bulletin just issued by the Department of Agriculture. During the cold days and nights of winter it is not likely to cause much trouble, according to experts. It is supposed to hibernate. Still in warm rooms it may continue its activities the whole year.

What is "Cimex Lectularius"? "Cimex" is the name given by the Romans who were well acquainted with it. "Lectularius" refers to its habits, being a derivative of "lectus" meaning "bed" or "couch." However in Bostonians, they were "minches." New Yorkers refer to them as "red coats" while in Baltimore they are called "mahogany flats." Elsewhere the parasites probably are

'ROBBERY' POORLY STAGE MANAGED

Clerk Takes $100 and impersonates Victim, But Forgets to Shift Scenes.

NEW YORK. Nov. 7.—After losing an election bet of $100 and finding himself unable to pay it, Joseph Cohen, a furrier's clerk, pilfered the amount from his firm's safe, according to his full confession to the police yesterday and then locked himself in a trunk in an effort to stage a robbery scene in which he was to play the role of victim. A member of the firm who rescued Cohen from the trunk shortly after the supposed robbery thought it strange that the "thieves" left behind $75,000 worth of furs. He had Cohen arrested. Cohen, it is said, then confessed.

BRYCE HONORED AT BANQUET OF PILGRIMS

LONDON. Nov. 7.—The Right Hon. Jones Bryce, late British Ambassador to the United States, was the guest of honor at a dinner given last night by the Pilgrims. The gathering was a distinguished one. Ambassador Page read a message from President Wilson conveying a warm tribute to the guest of the evening.

President Charles C. Moore of the Panama-Pacific Exposition sent the following cable:

"I still hope that the British and American flags will wave together at San Francisco in 1915."

Mr. Bryce expressed a belief that the Panama question would be solved to the satisfaction of both countries.

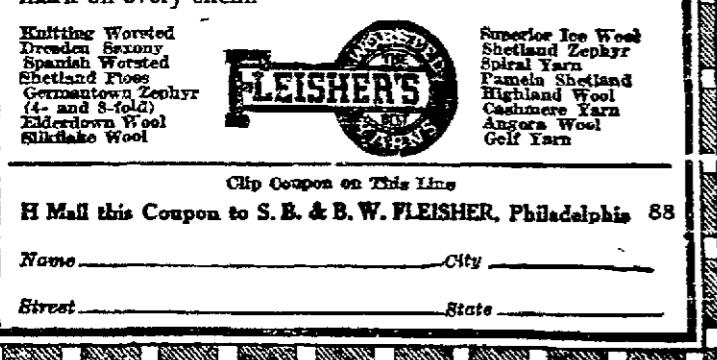

Cosycoat

It will take you just about five minutes to learn how to crochet this little garment. And you will find so many uses for it that you will wonder how you got along without it. Some women make them up in odd shades to contrast well with the coat. They are so inexpensive that you can afford several. Send the coupon below for complete directions. The yarn used is Fleisher's Germantown Zephyr, 4-fold, one of the sixteen.

FLEISHER YARNS

These yarns are spun of the finest wools by processes that retain all of the "life" of the delicate wool fibres. This produces a softness and elasticity that hard wear will not damage. That is why garments made of the Fleisher Yarns are so durable. Whatever kind of yarn you need, always insist on Fleisher's—look for the trade mark on every skein.

TAXATION HOME RULE
TOPIC OF DISCUSSION

"Home rule in taxation, and why social workers should favor it," will be the topic of discussion Tuesday noon at Capwell's Roofgarden at the monthly luncheon of the Social Workers' Club of Alameda county. Assemblyman George Gelder, author of the constitutional amendment on home rule, to be voted on by the people in November, 1912, will act as chairman of the day, and will give an account of the drastic contest at the legislature to secure the passage of the amendment for submission to the people.

Dr. W. G. Eggleston, of the Fels Fund Commission, and of the California League for Home Rule in Taxation, now writing and lecturing throughout the state in support of the constitutional amendment, will deliver the address of the day and answer questions.

The Fire Fighting Methods Improve Under Bureau of Forestry.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 7.—Chief Forester Graves, caretaker of the 165,000 acres of forest land owned by Uncle Sam, who has returned from a tour of inspection, visited most of the 150 forests which are public property. Graves expressed pleasure over the excellent showing being made in fire fighting.

This is a work to bring to complete efficiency, but many millions of dollars worth of good timber already are being saved annually.

A report which had just reached him telling him of eight simultaneous fires in the forests of the National Forests of California, had been put out with a loss of only 30 acres burned over was pointed to him as an indication of what was being done in saving valuable timber.

FEES ARE CUT.

CHICO, Nov. 7.—Receiver A. H. Smith and former Receiver G. D. Bell of the Fraser Hop Company and their attorneys, W. A. Gett and Wright & Stetson, were somewhat disconcerted yesterday when their claims for something like $4000 a piece for fees were cut to $2000.

YEGGMEN MUST HANG FOR KILLING FULMENIAN

VANCOUVER, B. C., Nov. 7.—Norman F. Clark and Frank Davis, the two yeggmen charged with the murder of Police Constable Archibald on the night of May 27 last, were declared guilty by the jury late yesterday afternoon after a half hour's consideration of the evidence that had been put before them and Justice Morrison sentenced the prisoner to be hanged on January 15.

THE ALTAR BOYS PLAN WHIST PARTY AS BIG CHURCH BENEFIT

The Altar Boys of St. Francis de Sales are preparing to give a large whist party for the benefit of their society on Wednesday evening, November 19, in their hall on Grove Street. Under the supervision of their director, Rev. Father Cantwell, elaborate plans have been laid for the entertainment of the guests.

The membership of the society is about fifty, the ages of the boys ranging from fourteen to seventeen years. These little workers have arranged the party in order to raise funds with which to fit up the church. The boys will act as scroffs of the guests.

The committee in charge is as follows:

Thomas McGrath, James F. Coakley,

Thomas Barnett, Eckert Smith, Richard

Heaney, Gregory Lighthouse, Leo Angell,

John and Maurice Kearney, Edward

Murphy, Oliver Kisch, Louis Fraga,

William Walsh and Eddie Lehane.

SAINT RAFAEL, Nov. 7.—Impending resignations and other matters calculated to put any institution in a flurry did not mar the joy of yesterday at San Quentin, where 1000 convicts laid away their striped clothing and donned the natty blue-gray uniforms devised from them

by Warden John E. Hoyle.

The passing of the stripes was a momentous occasion at the prison, and it was celebrated in a carnival of smiles, starting with life terms, who were extending to the warden, who was happy to witness another of his favorite plans in effect.

In making the change there was not the slightest confusion. The discarded clothing was stored away and probably will be dyed for use in rough work. The supply of striped clothing was short for the reason that its manufacture was stopped while the 2000 new suits were being made.

Under the new rules formulated by

Warden Hoyle the only striped clothing to be seen in the prison will be worn by prisoners who make a practice of violating the prison rules.

ASHES THROUGH MAIL.

NEW YORK, Nov. 7.—The ashes of William Fearn Woods, late of Stockton, Cal., reached Flushing yesterday by parcel post and will be laid at rest in the Flushing cemetery. The package containing the ashes was insured and the postage was $1.10. The package bore the inscription, "Re-mainds of Ashes of William Fearn

On the reverse side was written, "From B. C.

The President Alleged to Be Rewarding Supporters With Bids.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 7.—Only those members of the House and Senate who have kept their lamps burning with the oil of "support of the Administration" will be numbered among the 400 wedding guests who on November 26 will witness the marriage of Miss Jessie Wilson in the east room of the White House.

These wise men will be asked to bring their wives, but the other members of their families have not been invited.

Of course, the Vice-President and

Mr. Marshall, the Speaker and Mrs.

Clark and Miss Genevieve Champ Clark,

the leaders of both majority and minority parties in the House have been invited on account of the time-honored precedents and their official positions, only those of the members of the House and Senate who have consistently backed the Wilson program have received invitations.

The diplomatic corps will be represented only by the Ambassadors and Ministers and their wives.

The Cabinet will be represented by the secretaries and their wives and the assistant secretaries and heads of departments have been left in utter darkness.

The Justices of the Supreme Court and their wives have been invited, while thus far the only army family which appears to have received an invitation is that of General William L. Marshall and Mrs.

Marshall and Miss Gladys Marshall, who is a personal friend of the bride.

It is understood that Admiral George

Dewey will be among the guests.

There were weeping and wailing all through Washington society today because of the restricted number of guests and those who were, presumably for lack of room, left out.

The winter colony and the old residents set have but a few scattering invitations.

United States Output for 1913

Shows Remarkable Increase of Trade.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 7.—Coal exports of continental United States for 1913 will approximate $100,000,000, according to figures based upon the exportation for the first eight months of this year compiled by the bureau of foreign and domestic commerce. This puts the United States in third place of the coal exporting countries of the world, being exceeded only by the United Kingdom and Germany.

Anthracite coal comprises about one third of the total exports and goes almost exclusively to Canada. For the bi-annual period Canada is also a large custom, taking eight and a half million tons of twelve million tons exported in the eight months ending with August.

During the calendar year of 1903 coal exports amounted to $37,000,000.

COLLISION NARROWLY AVOIDED

FURNISHES DATA

(By EDMUND CRINNION.)
Passengers of the Thorougfare and Oakland in Panic

Prompt Action of Pilots Prevents Serious Consequences

Passengers on two ferry-boats were thrown into a panic, women screamed, and a tragedy was narrowly averted on the bay when the Southern Pacific ferryboat Thorougfare, from San Francisco, and the Oakland, leaving Oakland, missed each other by only 12 feet in the fog this morning. Only the prompt action of the captain of the Thorougfare, who veered his vessel in time to avoid the danger, prevented a collision.

The boats were passing Yerba Buena island at about 6:15 o'clock. The Thorougfare, a harbor route boat, had gone north of her course in the fog. So heavy was the mist that it was not until the boats were within about 400 feet of each other that either pilot knew of his peril.

Passengers stamped to sides of the boats away from the feared impact. One passenger on the Thorougfare took off his shoes, preparing to swim to safety, and several others had started to divest themselves of clothing before they realized that danger had passed. Life-preservers had been hastily brought to the decks by steamer hands on the first shout of danger.

Several other collisions in the estuary and on the bay were narrowly averted during the heavy fog which, until nearly 8 o'clock, shrouded the bay in a thick opaque cloud. So heavy was the fog that in the earlier dark hours lights could not be seen 200 feet away. Bells and whistles guarded the boats on their trips to and fro.

The Northwestern Pacific's ferryboat Tiburon, on the 7 o'clock run from San Francisco, after 20 minutes with four boats, ran uncomfortably near Alcatraz island, and in the end tried to enter the wrong slip, being compelled to back out from the Jackson-street dock.

As the Tiburon neared Alcatraz the government tug General McDowell, pulling out from the island prison's pier bound for Angel island, hove across the ferry's bows.

The clang of the engine gong and the tooting of the foghorn alarmed the passengers, who rushed to the apron and the forward hurricane deck. The vessels passed within a few yards, clever maneuvering preventing a crash.

Off the San Francisco waterfront another government tug, the Angel Island, ran as close to the Tiburon. As the latter swung around the river steamboat Petaluma limped up to starboard as close as the Angel Island lay to port.

When the three ships had been extricated from the tangle the Southern Pacific freight ferry Thorougfare bore down on the Tiburon while the latter was backing out of the Jackson-street dock. The Thorougfare was having difficulty in finding its own slip north of the Tiburon's.

Steamer Scotia Goes Into Mud in Fog

Losing her way in the heavy fog which enveloped the local waterfront early this morning, the steam schooner Scotia, Captain Justen, ran into the mud about half a mile inshore on the inner harbor channel. The craft is loaded with 750,000 feet of lumber. The vessel is owned by Hanify & Company and had just arrived from Eureka. She is in no danger and will be floated at high tide.

MANSLAUGHTER IS VERDICT OF JURY

Oakland Negro Is Convicted in Superior Court at Martinez.

MARTINEZ Nov. 7.—After remaining out for more than five hours, the jury brought in a verdict finding James Haynie of Oakland, guilty of manslaughter, at the conclusion of the trial of the man on a charge of murder, for the killing of R. N. Horn, a San Francisco chauffeur, at Grant Park, north of Richmond, on the afternoon of September 2. Haynie will come up for sentence some time during the early part of next week.

The trial of James Davis also of Oakland, charged with murder, and being implicated in Horn's killing, will begin next Tuesday morning.

STATE VIOLATES EIGHT HOUR LAW, IS CHARGED

THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
The violator of the labor laws was complained against today when Deputy State Labor Commissioner Blair discovered that R. It is a misdemeanor to employ anybody on state jobs more than eight hours a day. The engineering department promised not to violate the law further.

DREDGER RUNS INTO PILE AND FOUNDERS

The Pacific Coast Dredging and Excavating company's dredge No. 5, which had been working on the Sacramento River, ran aground on a pile of broken oil pipe early yesterday morning, which stove a hole in her bottom, causing her to founder. The interior of the craft was flooded and considerable damage to mechanism and other portions of the craft was done.

How to Prevent Acid Stomachs and Food Fermentation

By a Stomach Specialist.
As a specialist who has spent many years in the study and treatment of stomach troubles, I have been forced to the conclusion that most people who complain of stomach trouble possess stomachs that lack trouble, that is, trouble in the stomach and difficulty in digesting food. The pain and difficulty is acid in the stomach, usually due to, or aggravated by food fermentation. Acid irritates the delicate lining of the stomach and food fermentation causes wind, which distends the abdomen, causing constipation, full-blown fever. Thus both acid and fermentation interfere with and retard the process of digestion. The stomach is usually healthy and normal but irritated almost past endurance by these foreign elements—acid and wind. In all such cases—and there are over 90 per cent of all stomach difficulties—the first and only step necessary is to neutralize the acid and stop the fermentation by taking in a little warm or cold water immediately after eating, which is doubtless the best and easiest direction for all to follow, effective known.

The acid will be neutralized and the fermentation stopped almost instantly, and your stomach will at once begin to digest the food in a healthy, normal manner. Be sure to ask your druggist for the high-grade magnesia as he has found other forms utterly lacking in its peculiarly valuable properties.

SOME FIGURES.
"More than 30,000 trucks, each of which can be guaranteed to do twice as much work as a horse, and at one-half the maintenance and operation expense, could be built from the iron which is annually wasted in making horse shoes."

The above is the statement of John N. Willys, president of the Willys-Overland Co., and manufacturer of the Willys-Utility three-quarter ton truck. The Willys manufacturer quotes some very interesting figures to prove his new and rather startling observation of the inefficiency of present day merchandise transportation. Mr. Willys points out that half of the 25,000,000 horses and mules in the United States today could be dispensed with by the use of motor trucks. Each of these 12,500,000 animals requires six sets of shoes per year, each thus using 50 pounds of iron which could be utilized in the manufacture of motor trucks annually.

The Willys Utility truck, which is reducing the cost of merchandise transportation by more than fifty per cent in scores of lines of business today, weighs approximately 3300 pounds, compared said Willys. "Taking 50 pounds of iron as the amount needed for the annual renewal of horse shoes, it is simply a matter of division to prove that there is a tremendous waste here. We are making 10,000 of the Willys-Utility trucks this year, and if we could save the iron wasted in horse shoes, we could have sufficient material to run our plant for several years."

A Splendid Civic and Moral Victory

The fight for decency is won. Responding to the call of public sentiment, the Council today unanimously passed the liquor ordinance after amending it to meet the objections of the Public Welfare League. The clause including restaurant bars in the two hundred saloon licenses authorized by law was restored and the date when the reduction in the number of saloons shall go into final effect was fixed at July 1, 1914. This was in accordance with the understanding previously arrived at between the Council and the Welfare League.

The greatest and most sweeping reform measure ever enacted in Oakland. They have done something for the moral uplift of the community that entitles them to the thanks and commendation of every citizen who places home and fireside and clean living and the moral welfare of the growing generation above the saloons and the unclean profits of business of a kind which defiles and corrupts a community. Henceforth we can lay a claim to being a city of legitimate business, homes, schools and churches. At one stroke the Council has decided to wipe out nearly two hundred low saloons and dirty deadfalls, among them the assignation cafes and the disreputable joints where the legal restrictions on the sale of liquor to minors and women are disregarded.

Now that the Council has given the people what they demanded and risen to the call of moral duty in the face of clamor, pressure, persuasion and threats of political reprisal, it is the duty of the people to stand by the Council. Any assault directed at the Council at this juncture will of necessity tend to undo the good work just done and will be construed as a punishment for the measure of reform just enacted. To permit the Council to be assailed, on any pretext whatever, as matters stand at present, will discourage the officials from doing their duty courageously in the future. It will create ground for the claim that the people are not in favor of license reform, and encourage the liquor interest to renew the fight for a wide-open town.

A recall movement begun now would be joined in by the whole saloon element. All sorts of accusations and grievances would be set up as a pretext for removing the present commissioners, but the movement would be financed by the liquor men and the impetus would be supplied by those interested in the reversing of the Council's action on

The effort would be to punish the Council not for mistakes made in the management of the city's business, but for doing a noble service. They would be tried on allegations that they are guilty of faults in dealing with other matters, but hanged for offending the saloons. They would be charged with an entirely different offense, but would be tried for reducing the number of saloons and putting the liquor traffic under stricter regulation.

No reform of the character of the one the Council has given the people of Oakland can endure unless the people support the officials who translate the reforms into law. Failure to understand this truth has made many reforms abortive in the past. It is the big thing we must look at and balance merit with demerit in making up our judgment. No just balance can be drawn by casting up the debits and ignoring the credits. Above all, the ultimate consequences should always be kept in view.

What we wish to impress on the good people of Oakland is that they must stand by the Council if they would hold what they have gained. Passing the liquor ordinance has given deep offense to powerful interests. It is resisted because it has touched many pockets. It has spoiled political plans and broken the coalition which profits by controlling the machinery of politics. There is no special or personal interest back of the splendid reform the Council has given us, nothing save moral sentiment and good citizenship. But if public officials who bravely do their duty in crises such as the one we are passing through cannot rely on moral sentiment and good citizenship, reforms which are purely moral and sentimental must fail. Members of the Welfare League should bear in mind the ancient maxim that eternal vigilance is the price of liberty. In this fight they are confronted with a determined and resolute enemy that never gives up the fight and which will stop at nothing to gain its end. It will assume all sorts of disguises, appear under any sort of banner and appeal under any pretense to the public to punish those who stand in its way or thwart its designs.

THE TRIBUNE means to say that the reforms embodied in the liquor ordinance cannot be permanent or effective unless the good citizenship of Oakland holds up the hands of the Council and defends the Councilmen from assault. Only in that way can the people prevent the decision being reversed upon a technicality as the lawyers say. The Council will be stronger for righteousness and honest and effective administration knowing that the moral sentiment of the community is behind the gun ready to condone small faults in recognition of large virtues, and readier still to defend and reward officials who are responsive to the call of the highest civic duty and who obey conscience and morality rather than the sinister forces symbolized by the saloon.

The men who voted for the liquor ordinance are in this category. They have done their duty, now let the good citizens do theirs.

Piedmont's Park Project.

Piedmont is at last making a practical effort to acquire lands for parks and playgrounds in accordance with a plan that promises to be satisfactory to a large majority of the inhabitants of that beautiful suburb. The park proposition submitted some time ago provoked much opposition and was voted down at the polls. A new plan has been worked out that promises to receive popular approval.

It is proposed to acquire the old Blair Park tract, comprising fifty-five acres, a tract of about eight acres skirting a wooded ravine running from the Piedmont car line down toward Pleasant Valley and the lower part of the Piedmont Springs Park. The last is to be used primarily as a playground. These various tracts are so distributed to be convenient to the residents in all sections of the town, and all are natural beauty spots. They all lend themselves readily to treatment that will enhance their beauty and increase the charms of Piedmont as an ideal residential suburb. Moreover, the plan to acquire them for park purposes will preserve for further beautification spots which should never be devoted to building purposes.

The project is not too ambitious nor unduly expensive, and embodies a scheme of landscape adornment which can be indefinitely expanded with the growth of the community. It paves the way rather than closes the door to the future acquisition of the upper section of Piedmont Springs Park should it be deemed expedient for the town to acquire that property. But that is a question for future consideration. By acquiring the three tracts named the citizens of Piedmont will equip themselves with pleasure grounds which can be improved to great advantage. In the improvement of these tracts, public spirit can co-operate effectively with private taste in the work of civic adornment.

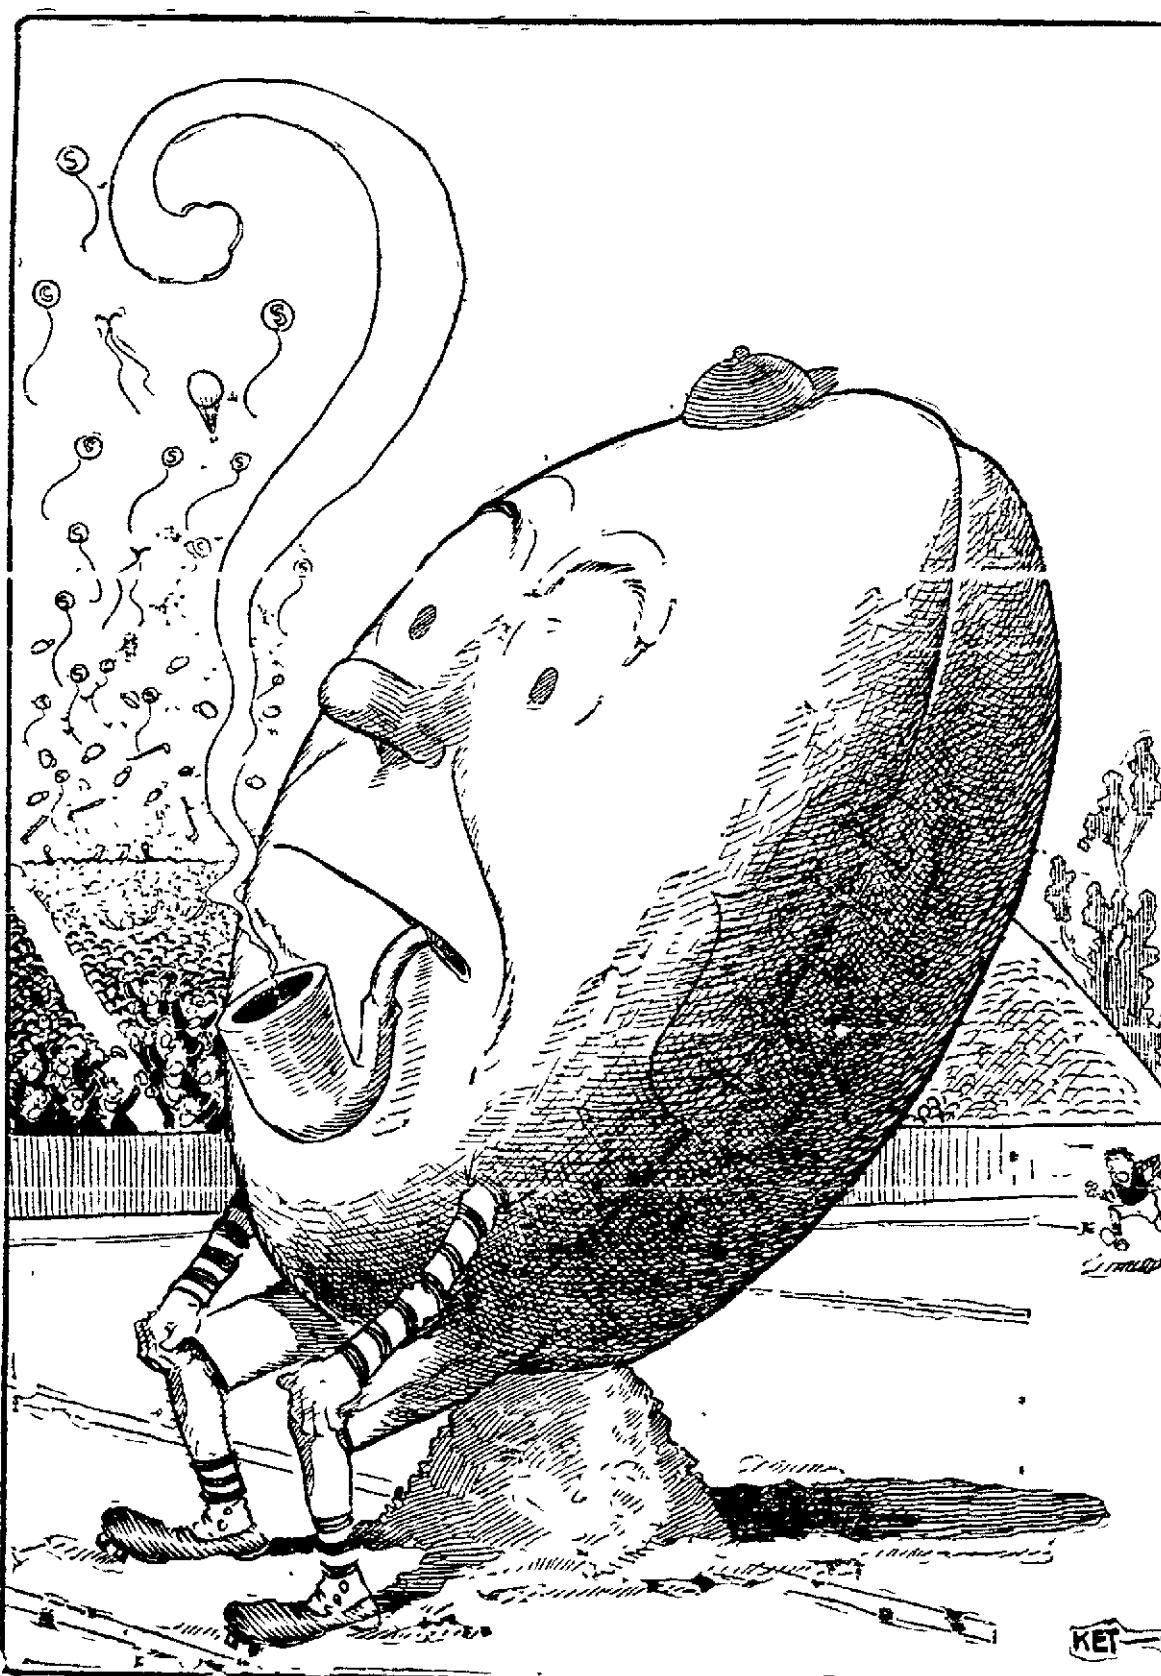

This park scheme of our Piedmont neighbors has a special interest for the people of Oakland, for Piedmont is geographically a part of this city, and whatever adorns Piedmont adds to the attractiveness of Oakland. Parks and playgrounds in Piedmont will be as pleasing to Oakland eyes as if they were in this city. They will be figured in as a part of the development of the entire region of which Oakland is the hub and center. Therefore the people of Oakland should praise and encourage their Piedmont neighbors in their efforts to adorn their town and make it more beautiful and more attractive as a place of residence. Piedmont is a rarely beautiful place, but it has a wealth of beauty still to be developed.

This park project is a step toward the ultimate development which is destined to make the heights reaching around from Claremont to Fruitvale renowned the world over as a region of idyllic charm and loveliness, where the word home is expressed in physical forms to delight the eye and entrance the poetic imagination.

The Palo Alto says stopping "The Traffic" is a good advertisement for Oakland. Which is to say that it pays to be decent.

Coroner Tisdale is to be commended for refusing to receive and approve the verdict of the coroner's jury in the Quinton inquest. The jury exceeded its prerogatives by attempting to nullify the action of the criminal courts, and the coroner did a proper thing in refusing to sanction the proceeding. the jurisdiction of trial courts in cases of homicide, rendering verdicts of acquittal or conviction which have no legal force, but which are utilized by attorneys appearing for the defense or prosecution in courts of criminal jurisdiction to make capital for or against the defendant. It is time to call a halt on the practice. The verdict in the Quinton case was a particularly flagrant instance, and the rebuke Coroner Tisdale administered to the jury was both timely and wholesome. He did his duty in frowning on a gratuitous interference with the orderly course of justice.

IMMORALITY IS VEXATIOUS PROBLEM

The Purity Congress Speaker Points to Necessity for Reforming States.

Herbert S. Gernert Says Federal Government Is Doing Good Work.

MINNEAPOLIS, Minn., Nov. 7.—"Public immorality is a problem with which the states must deal," said Herbert S. Gernert, of New York, who delivered the principal address at the Purity Congress, which opened here today. "The federal government is doing a great work in this field, but it is seriously handicapped by the limitations of the constitution, the large territory to be covered and the extent to which the evil has grown," he continued.

"Public morality is not unlike public health, public business or public safety in the institution which must control it. Today we have our departments of agriculture, our commissioners of railroads and of insurance and our boards of public safety."

Mrs. Alice Stebbins Wells of the Los Angeles police department said:

"The police woman has come in answer to modern needs, and she has come to stay—not to displace men but to supplement their work. For countless ages the business world was a man's world, with women and children secluded in the home."

"When cities fully realize the value of women in preventative work, there will be such women in every city, and many where now there are few. Plain clothes for investigations and quiet ministry; both plain clothes and uniforms for parks, stations, steamboats and other public places, for those who may wish to appeal to women officers."

DINOSAUR BONES FOUND IN ALBERTA

Complete Skeleton Can Now Be Shown at American Museum.

NEW YORK, Nov. 7.—Enough bones of the monoclonius or horned dinosaur have at last been unearthed from the Red Deer River region in Alberta, Canada to form the first complete skeleton of the prehistoric creature. Barnum Brown, of the staff of the American Museum of Natural History, has returned to New York with a series of bones of the dinosaur and other mammal animals which flourished in the Red Deer river region some three million years ago. It is estimated.

Fragments of the bones which now make up the first complete skeleton of the monoclonius were first discovered in 1875. The skeleton completes shows the creature stood about five feet high and was fifteen feet long.

Besides the monoclonius there were found parts of three new species of the horned dinosaur, and sufficient material to complete the skeleton of an ankylocaurus, a weird creature which had a coat resembling a suit of armor and carried a sort of cuir at the end of its tail. The discoveries make the dinosaurs collection of the national history museum here the finest of the sort in the world.

MC LAURIN GIVES SHARP REPLY TO TILLMAN

SPARTANBURG, S. C., Nov. 7.—John L. McLaurin, formerly United States Senator, is not yet ready to bury the hatchet with Senator Tillman, with whom he engaged in a fist fight on the floor of the Senate ten years ago. Replying yesterday to overtures of peace from Senator Tillman, in which Tillman asked McLaurin "as a penance for past sins" to take the field against Governor Beane in the latter's campaign for the Senate, McLaurin said:

"McLaurin's letter is distinctly offensive. He says in effect Johnny is smart, but he is a bad little boy. He sasses pap, pap is sorry, but come here, John, stand me the truth, you get across my knee, pap is going to spank you, but if Johnny is good the rest of the week he can go to the movies on Saturday."

RUN-DOWN WOMEN

Find Health in a Simple Tonic. How many women do you know who are perfectly well, strong and healthy as a woman should be? They may not be sick enough to lie in bed—but they are run-down, thin, nervous, tired and devitalized.

Women are so active nowadays, and so much is expected of them, that they constantly overdo and suffer from headache, backache, nervousness and kindred ills.

Such women need Vinol, our delicious cod liver and iron tonic without oil which will create an appetite, tone up the digestive organs, make pure blood and create strength.

Mrs. Walter Price, Eliz., Miss. says: "I was in a run-down condition for months, I had taken several medicines but they seemed to do no good. Finally Vinol was recommended, and from the first bottle I began to improve until I am strong and well again."

Try a bottle of Vinol with the understanding that your money will be returned if it does not help you. The Owl Drug Co., Oakland, Calif.

COLLEGE TEAMS ON EDGE FOR BATTLE

BLUE AND GOLD MEN PROVE LIGHTER THAN RIVALS IN CARDINAL

Players Cheered at Student Rallies on Brink of Big Contest; Both Sides to Fight Hard

"Win or lose. Get behind your team tomorrow. It is a hard and clean fighting fifteen. It is the best that the university can put out."—Coach Jimmy Schaeffer of University of California.

"We have a fighting chance to win, and we are going to make the most of it. Get behind the team and yell, and we will do the best we can."—Captain Peart of University of California.

The orchestra of public sentiment is playing the overture; the cast of the annual drama has been selected, and is waiting in the wings; twenty-four hours hence the curtain will have gone up and the audience will be cheering wildly. This expresses the situation on the eve of the annual big game between Stanford and Berkeley, scheduled for tomorrow afternoon on the campus of Palo Alto.

A new factor of gossip of the Stanford-California rugby game, to be played tomorrow on Stanford field, came up for consideration in college circles today, with the official announcement of the varsity line-ups yesterday, and of the weight of the men. The figures show that the California scrum, heralded throughout the season as the first Blue and Gold pack in years to be heavier than their Cardinal rivals, actually weighs one pound less to the man. The difference may have a decided bearing on the result tomorrow.

Gossip has given the Californians credit for an average of five pounds to the man over Stanford on unofficial weight figures, and the assumption that such was the fact has had its part in making California a 10 to 8 or 9 to 7 favorite in the betting. The Stanford pack averages 170 and California 169.

TRAINERS SATISFIED.

Both teams were pronounced on edge today by the trainers, and coaches declared themselves satisfied. Light practice was the program at each camp.

Down at Stanford unusual precautions have been taken to insure a good playing field. Part of the turf has been covered a foot deep with straw and several hundred students were ready to bury the whole field if rain threatened. The covering will be raked off tomorrow morning or just before the game, if the weather is rainy.

Light betting on the game was reported here today.

California expects to win, and from the showing of the two teams during the past three weeks the victory should be hers. But the spirit of California vs. Stanford is a big and an important factor to reckon with. What the stress of this competition will do to either team is a matter only to be guessed about.

If clear and bright beside the twenty-third game will surely be a fast and an exciting one. Turf under foot always means speed and the California men, especially, will feel the effects of the springy grass.

SUFFRAGISTS MAKE AGREEMENT EFFORTS

Enfranchisement May Be Part of the Liberal Party Program

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 7.—Miss Margaret Ogden, the talented daughter of Superior Judge Ogden of Oakland, who aspires to make her mark before the bar of California, and her partner, Mrs. Anette Abbot Adams, were admitted to practice in the federal court by United States Judge Dooling this morning. Only one woman has been similarly honored before in this district. She is Mrs. Dorothy Van Schutten of Berkeley, who qualified on November 20, 1912.

Mrs. Ogden, who has already achieved not a little fame, and Mrs. Adams, who is said to be quite an advocate, sat within the railing prior to the opening of court and when a motion was made admitting them, stood up to be recognized by Judge Dooling, according to the regular form. The two ladies, who will make a specialty of cases in which women are the injured parties, have offices in the Monadnock building.

Former President Taft Has Valuable Securities

NEW HAVEN, Conn., Nov. 7.—Former President William Howard Taft holds securities valued at $100,000 according to lists filed with the state treasurer in response to the demand that government, state, municipal and miscellaneous bonds subject to a state tax, and therefore exempt from local taxation, be registered. This list is wholly outside the federal income tax registration. The state receives a two per cent tax on this list of securities.

ESCAPED LUNATIC IRVINGTON VISITOR

Agnews Inmate Eats a Meal, Orders Drink; Captured

Andrew Winters, who terrified the residents of Midway, Alameda county, a year ago, by threatening the population with a huge revolver, escaped from Agnews asylum early yesterday and made his way to Irvington, where last night he caused considerable commotion. Entering the Irvington hotel, he calmly seated himself at a table and ate a hearty supper. When he repaired to a room conducted by Joe Leahy near the railway station, and ordered dinner. The proprietor detected something unusual about the customer, and finally when closing time came, and his patron refused to leave, Leahy notified Deputy Sheriff Sammie Van Dervort, who recognized the escaped lunatic. This morning Van Dervort brought Winters to the Emergency Hospital, where he is being held until arraigned from Agnews arriving to take him back.

At the time Winters terrified the village of Midway, a posse of deputy sheriffs surrounded him and effected his capture. He was shortly after committed to Agnews.

"They dared me to escape, so I just walked away," explained the prisoner today.

CLAIRVOYANT TRUST CODE MADE KNOWN DURING TRIAL

CHICAGO, Nov. 7.—In the secret language of the so-called "clairvoyant trust," two members of which are now on trial here in the state courts, "pumpkin" means Philadelphia and "crawford" refers to Boston.

These other terms in which the clairvoyants are said to conduct conversations were made public yesterday by Jesse Cullage, a negro clairvoyant who turned state's evidence, in the trial of James Ryan and Barney Bertache on charges of operating a confidence game.

More of the alleged secret language follows:
"38—Live one, sucker.
"Wulsen—Trouble, beat it.
"3—A policeman.
"Big 3—Police chief.
"3 house—Station house or cell.
"Script 38—Victim buying mining stock."

All Communications to the Editor of THE TRIBUNE must bear

TRIBUTE TO MRS. MILLER.

EDITOR TRIBUNE: In your issue of November 4 there appeared a notice of the recent death of Mrs. Emily Huntington Miller, which will bring sincere regret to hundreds of American heartsides, where the qualities of home-loving and Miller's character was full of wisdom, purity and kindness, manifested in all that she did, said and wrote, and which the fine reserve and courtesy of the old-fashioned lady was always hers.

Mention was made in your notice of her connection with "The Little Corporal," the first serial magazine for children published in this country. Mrs. Miller was a delightful contributor to its pages from the beginning. The statement, however, that it was founded by her, is an error, the correction of which she would be the first to desire. The magazine, which attained instant popularity, was founded by Alfred L. Sewell, one of the earliest and most honored citizens of Chicago soon after the close of the Civil War. The great fire of Chicago, in the seventies greatly crippled the fortune of Mr. Sewell, and the magazine, soon after that, was sold by him to Mr. and Mrs. Miller at such time she assumed the editorial management.

Mr. Sewell, after his long and useful life, died within the past few weeks at the age of 82.

So have passed, almost together, into the better life, two of the loveliest souls our country has ever known, who were associated here in beautiful effort that exactly fitted its time, and doubtless has left an impress of lasting good.

LUCIA CHASE BELL,
Oakland, Nov. 7.

OBJECTS TO PLAN.

Editor TRIBUNE: Dear Sir—In last evening's TRIBUNE you advocate buying more parks. It does seem the people of Oakland are park crazy, our taxes are more than we can pay.

Why not, with your influential paper, help to lift the burden of the people, rather than add to it?

MRS. F. NELSON.

Taxicab Chauffeurs
Accept 11-Hour Day

NEW YORK, Nov. 7.—Nearly 1000 taxicab chauffeurs decided at a mass meeting today to accept an 11-hour working day offered by the employers, thus reducing from their demand for a ten-hour day, to enforce, which they threatened to strike. The men formerly worked twelve hours.

TOBACCO CASE POSTPONED.

LEXINGTON, Ky., Nov. 7.—By order of Judge F. M. Tracey, the election of directors and officers of the Burley Tobacco Company, set for yesterday, was postponed until next Tuesday in order to give a force of clerks time to prepare papers and test thousands of proxies. At least 40,000 tobacco growers in the tobacco growing districts are interested.

FUTURE OF HARBOR IS OUTLINED BY KNOWLAND

Congressman Makes Valuable Suggestions in Address Before Downtown Ass'n

"Oakland's ideally situated inner harbor has future improvements under way, which, without doubt, will make it one of the important docking places upon the opening of the canal on the western seaboard." But to have these improvements a certainty, it is necessary for the people to demonstrate to Congress that they are confident that appropriations for such improvements will be of benefit to themselves.

So declared Congressman Joseph R. Knowland at a banquet held last evening by the Down Town Association at the Hotel Alameda on 24th Street, attended by a representative gathering of practically every large business in the downtown section of the city and civic and improvement organizations.

"To the present time the people of Oakland have done their part nobly," he continued. "They have shown that they case is Colonel Rees of San Francisco. A detailed survey is then made by Colonel Rees to ascertain what the cost for the particular improvement would be, and if conditions warrant, the money is raised by Congress. Other harbors along the coast have been finally convinced that it is necessary for a depth of water greater than the present thirty feet, to safely handle big shipping. Therefore they are asking that they be deepened to a depth of thirty-five feet. It will be a very short time before this county will need that depth and Alameda county will demand that we should have that depth."

"In 1874 Oakland's inner harbor was nothing but a marsh land with a depth of two feet and a tidal depth of five feet. The annual shipping amounted to about 154,000 tons. The Federal government since then has expended $4,000,000 in bringing the water to its present 30-foot depth and making various other improvements."

PEOPLE MUST SHOW INTEREST.

"Of late years the city has been doing wonderful work in improving its holdings along the waterfront. This is a most important fact, it showing Congress that the people in this district are interested in their harbor. I insist that if the people continue to show confidence, that the business men do something. Then Congress will continue its interest and spend its money in improvements local—just as it has done before. And I assure you gentlemen, that no locality has been better looked after by Congress than Oakland harbor." The speaker was interrupted by applause.

Oakland has a great natural fact, you can't realize or appreciate the wonderful possibilities which lie in the development of this waterfront. It does not take great capital, the charter vessels; you don't have to lay railroad tracks, you don't have to invest millions in hundreds of other ways. Indeed, not a limited number of shipping competitors will compete for business of this state and business of the west."

KNOWLAND LOUDLY APPLAUDED.

"And gentlemen, in conclusion, I am sure that I can guarantee that the Federal government will do its part.

Knowland was loudly applauded and his remarks were commented on as being those of a man acquainted with the conditions prevalent in his district.

The results accomplished and in the act of starting on the southern waterfront were exploited by Harry Anderson, Commissioner of public works. Anderson quotes figures to show that eight pieces of land on the waterfront between Market street and Broadway had been purchased by the city at an outlay of $573,751.98, including the Kendall and Merritt hospital properties, which are at present in litigation. "Our attorneys state that we will have no difficulty in recovering our title to the property," declared Anderson.

"The over wall," he continued, "has been absolutely completed at a cost of $250,000.

It is 23 feet in width at the base, gradually tapering to the top at 18 inches. It is 42 feet in height and constructed of solid reinforced concrete.

We now have our own dredge and have for the most part filled in the land in back of the wall."

SAMAEL MAKES SUGGESTION.

Police Judge Samuels told of the necessity of backing up public officials. He stated that "if you didn't agree with what was done go in and make your suggestions."

J. Treager acted as chairman of the reception committee and was assisted by Frank Davidson, A. Alexander and M. Goldwater. Lee Bertillon handled the entertainment part of the program and an array of local talent gave vocal and musical selections to entertain.

Edwin Stearns brought up the question of the association getting up a petition to send to the railroad commission asking that the Calumet Transportation company be forced to extend a car service through the Fourteenth and Washington streets extension. The petition will be sent to the commission within the course of the next ten days.

MAGNETS TO FORM ATTRACTIVE FERRY

French Company Offers Drawing Card to the Marin Boosters

If mariners on the bay see their compasses spin around, their capstans leave their moorings in ships decks and fly wildly through the air to McNear's Point, or their cooking stoves and frying pans dance madly about the galley in a sort of oceanic狂, they will know that the bay region has the first magnetic ferry in history. It is claimed that it can drag ships four miles away. What it will do to pots, pans, capstans and masts is not yet known. Also, it may drag iron magnetic rocks, causing them to fly from their former places far faster than predicted in Scott's poem. A bunch of keys or a beer check in a mariner's pocket might drag him to a watery grave.

Two great magnets, one on McNear's Point and one on the Contra Costa shore, may propel—or rather draw—a ferry boat by its soft-iron nose through the waters of the bay, according to the plan of a French company, claiming such an invention. If this is approved by Senator J. C. Owens, in charge of the committee boosting the proposed Contra Costa-Marin ferry, Jacques Berouet, representative of the inventor of the boat, has written from the Hotel Oakland, where he is a guest, to the senator offering his invention.

In principle, he declares, his ferry resembles the toy boats which children drag across a dishpan with magnets.

Two huge electromagnets, composed of iron towers surrounded by helices of real iron, pass over the deck of the boat.

LONE BANDIT MARTIAL LAW ROBS TRAIN IN CITY ORDER IS REVOKED

Boards a Burlington Sleeping Car; Gets $500 in Money.

Compels Porter to Search the Passengers; Makes His Escape.

OMAHA Nov 7.—A lone high-wayman boarded a sleeping car on Burlington train No. 8 yesterday just as it was about to leave Council Bluffs, snatched outer money bag, held up the porter, robbed six sleeping passengers and made his escape.

The robber is believed to have secured about $500 in money at first watch.

He knocked at the cabin door of the porter and the porter admitted him. He covered the latter with a gun.

JUMPS FROM TRAIN

He jumped from the train on the Iowa side of the river and it was half an hour later that the police in this city and Council Bluffs were notified of the robbery.

Apparently lack of time was all that prevented the robber from making a big haul, as he was captured before he could get away.

He forced the porter to search the passengers' clothing while he looked on.

The porter was able to give a good description of the robber but although the police of the two cities were quickly at work searching for him no trace had been secured up to an early hour this morning.

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov 7.—Leveling two silver-barreled pistols at the head of John Alholm a bartender, a brace of thugs held up the saloon of Henry Ficken 235 Army street early this morning. They obtained only $7 from the cash register and made a hasty exit through a side door.

EMPLOYEES MAY RETURN.

The proposition in brief, is for outside labor leaders to cease their activity among the employees of the company, that all employees who have not engaged in acts of violence will return to their old positions with the company; that the operation of the system be resumed at once, that after 30 days the company will consider any grievance among its employees, and that, if no mutual adjustment can be made, it shall be referred to the public service commission, whose decision will be final.

It was said that the traction officials had agreed to all except the first clause of the contract, which merely requires that the outside labor leaders cease activity. It was also said the company as yet had taken no action on that clause. The labor people had not intimated what their action would be.

W. P. DEAL IS NOT YET CLOSED

Western Pacific Head Denies Purchase of Oakland-Antioch.

Bush Will Not Affirm or Deny the Report of Trackage Agreement.

SAN FRANCISCO Nov 7—Leaving the final negotiations for the purchase or traffic agreement with the Oakland, Antioch & Eastern Railway still in an

Bush of the Western Pacific will leave tomorrow for the East. This announcement was made by him this morning and he declared that only some sudden development would prevent his departure on the limited train tomorrow morning.

Information was given out today that there could be no definite arrangement between the Oakland, Antioch & Eastern and the Western Pacific conducted at this time. President Bush came here on his regular fall tour of inspection and to a meeting of the directors in the Mills building offices of the company he was re-elected president and hurried into the details of the negotiations and other affairs placed before him.

In the Bush party which traveled west with the president of the road were Vice-President E. L. Brown of the Western Pacific, Vice-President J. G. Drew of the Missouri Pacific, E. L. Merston, a New York broker and director of the Gould roads, and J. P. Stevens, an engineer who has charge of the work of estimating valuations of the different lines.

The noticeable interest in the Oakland, Antioch & Eastern by the Gould interests, and the second trip in which President Bush has inspected the proposed first great transcontinental deal between the two companies. Another story is that a trackage agreement may be entered into.

President Bush denied the purchase rumor, but declared that he would neither affirm nor deny the trackage agreement.

"It is hard" he declared "for a man in my position to discuss any of these matters especially in these times of national strike. What I might correctly say today might come about in a few months. Still for the present, I will talk on these reports."

PURCHASE NOT MADE.

"The Gould system has not purchased the Oakland, Antioch & Eastern Railway as to the joint trackage matter, nothing has been done and I cannot say if it will.

It is the intention of the Gould system to establish an up to date quick service between St. Louis and San Francisco to handle Panama Pacific exposition business.

President Bush has been invited to attend and has accepted the acceptance of the invitation.

Other high officials of the order who have signified their intentions of being present are George F. Ward of the grand encampment, Colonel J. K. Ritter, brigadier general of the Canton branch, and others. A vocal selection will be rendered by Miss Lucy Van der Mark. Dancing, whist, and a reception will be included in the evening's entertainment. The lodges which will participate are the subordinate branch encampment branch, Canton branch and Rebekah branch. The head of the committee which consists of 100 members is J. F. Streightoff of Bealeton chairman, E. Bach vice-chairman and B. F. Eber of San Leandro treasurer.

Among those who will participate are Miss Eleanor Magannizzi and Mrs. Ethel Foster.

TO HOLD TEMPERANCE AND PURITY DAY RALLY

The speakers will be Rev. Levi Gregory, vice-president of the State Sunday School Association, Arthur Staples, of the Young Men's Christian Association; C. C. Lombard, superintendent of the Eighth Avenue Methodist Episcopal church, Professor Earl Lundy of the Tenth Avenue Baptist church; W. B. Waddell, of the Brooklyn Presbyterian church, and T. M. Gardner, of the Pilgrim Congregational church.

Songs and recitations will be given by the representatives of the Sunday schools of East Oakland.

'Daisy Putnam' Has Trial Trip; Success

The new steam schooner Daisy Putnam, constructed at a cost of $125,000, made a successful trial trip about the bay from the United Engineering Works yesterday afternoon. The craft was constructed for the Fremont Steamship Company, and will be used as a lumber carrier. It is 200 feet in length with a beam of 41 feet and a hold depth of 14½ feet. It has a lumber capacity of 1,000,000 feet.

The child was playing with the puppy, when suddenly she was heard to scream.

BURNS FIGHTS MCCARTHY
TONIGHT AT LOUIS
PARENTE'S SHOW

Oaklander Gives Away Weight to the Fighting Bricklayer; Gossip.

(By THE TIMEKEEPER) While cardsharp Frankie Burns is quite popular over the weight question, he is considered a favorite tonight to knock McCarthy the bricklayer from across the bay. Burns and McCarthy meet for four rounds at the main event on Louis Parente's card. Burns can make no mistake through 1924.

other hand, McCarthy is a wader more and simple. He has a solid luck in both hands too, and Frankie may have tackled more than he anticipated.

The bricklayer has arranged eight bouts for this evening, and the card is a promising one. Lee Johnson, who colored 180 pounds of Oakland, is matched to box Babe Picato of Los Angeles. Both ladies are extremely clever fighters and the bout will be a good one. Johnson looks like one of the best boys the four round game has developed.

All Rogers and Tom Nickola are matched willingly enough, and the show is sure to be a success while there is a ring.

Rogers recently returned from the east and in his own coat were not shown up in good form.

Yutro Watanabe, the fighting Jay, will try his strength with Kid Exposito, a Northern fighter 180 pounds.

Dick Kroll of Butchertown is to oppose Dummy Thomas, a local 126 pounder.

Joe Reilly and Kid Romeo, 115-pounders, meet in a return bout and the curtain raiser fighters are Jerry Drexel and Billy Gordon, 112-pounds.

That famous veteran of the ring, Billy Jordan, whose "Let 'er go" has made him almost a national character, has announced his retirement. Billy is 32 years of age and in recent years has been failing. He will take up his home in Yountville. Championship battles on the coast will hardly seem natural without Jordan's presence.

Jimmy Fox and Roy Moore have been matched as the main event of the West Oakland club next Wednesday night, according to published report. The boys will box ten rounds weighing in at 115 pounds at 6 o'clock.

Owen Moran, the English lightweight, who arrived here from Australia yesterday, has accepted himself already to Captain Mitchell, an associate of Jimmy Coffroth. Moran appears to be in good physical condition, and is anxious to do battle.

Promoter Jimmy Coffroth has an appointment with Mitchell for this afternoon.

Bohans is preparing an unusually classy lot of preliminaries for the Azevedo-Vale scrap here on the evening of November 19.

Johnny McCarthy, who is matched in tonight's four round bout against Frankie Burns, has accepted an offer to fight "Wildcat" Ferns of Kansas City in December. McCarthy is to be in the ring tomorrow for the benefit of the concert, as he will have no more time for training than the law allows. Ferns is a welterweight, but as McCarthy is a big boy that will mean much, if any, of a handicap for him.

The West Oakland club contemplates as one of the preliminaries for its main event next Wednesday night, a six round bout between Bubbles Burns and Carl Grotz, Harry Hickey's old rival. Kid Exposito and some other good slugger will mix it in the preliminary also.

JAMES THE DELEGATE.

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 6.—George James was selected last night as the delegate who will attend the annual meeting of the Amateur Athletic Union in New York City. James will go as a delegate to the P. A. A. He was chosen over the head of Eustace M. Peck.

Grip on Pappas' Ear Wins the Match

As was generally anticipated, the advertised wrestling match at the West Oakland club last night proved a farce. Mendoncas, the Harvard champion, took Pappas, a rather slippery individual for 50 minutes, but managed finally to get a good grip on the Greek's ears, to which he hung until the latter's seconds took pity on him and threw up the sponge. Referee Al Lavigne then announced that Mendoncas was the winner.

The size of the house did not appeal either to the promoters or the wrestlers. Mendoncas had been guaranteed $200 and when he noted that the box office receipts wouldn't permit such a division, he declined to wrestle. For awhile it looked like no show, but Referee Lavigne finally announced that the gate receipts would be given to charity unless the match was fought out on the square. Then came the ear-pulling.

The preliminaries were all ex-hibition matches.

To Secure Price of Land Needed

O'NEILL FOUND GUILTY BY JURY

Richmond Water Board to Take No Chances of Being Soaked Later.

RICHMOND, Nov. 7.—The Board of Directors of the Richmond municipal water district at its meeting in the City Hall last evening, directed Manager D. J. Hall to at once take steps to secure options on all reservoir and pumping plant sites which will be needed for the construction of the proposed Sacramento river supply of the water for the projected Richmond municipal water system.

The directors believe that as far as possible the prices they will have to pay for the land needed should be obtained before bonds are voted and the money secured so that no exorbitant prices can be demanded by owners following the election if the bonds are voted to be issued.

Engineers will at once take up this phase of the water district plan.

Engineer Tibbetts announced that the engineers are rapidly completing the work on the final report to the board which will be ready shortly.

The First National Bank was named by the board as the depository for the district's funds.

LEADERS PLAN TO FORCE MONEY BILL

If No Action in the Committee Caucus Will Handle Currency Matter.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 7.—With the administration currency bill extensively amended by a coalition of Republicans and Democrats in the Senate banking committee administration forces today planned to make one more attempt to unite the committee Democrats. Leaders decided that unless a bill meeting the approval of the administration is ready by Monday a caucus will be called, the measure taken from the hands of the committee and made a Democratic caucus bill.

Enough Democratic Senators have petitioned Senator Kern, the moderate leader, to call a party conference to insure such a meeting. Mr. Kern has notified all absenteers to return to Washington. The senators who have petitioned for the conference want to have the Democrats of the banking committee instructed to bring out the report on the bill at a certain time.

GAVIN MAY ASK COURT TO BE GIVEN PROBATION

RICHMOND, Nov. 7.—Just what day D. J. Gavin, former local realty operator arrested on a charge of fraud will be arraigned in the local police court will depend upon action of the District Attorney's office. It is hoped by Chief Arnold to have the arraignment today, if it will be satisfactory with District Attorney A. E. McKenzie, but if it is not held today it will probably have to over until the first of next week.

In view of the fact that Gavin is wholly repentant for the transaction by which he has admitted he spent $100 of the money given him by the Hindus who has caused his arrest and has stated that he is ready to enter a plea of guilty and take the consequences, sentiment here seems strong that he be admitted to probation.

Another case where fraud was charged against a realty dealer, the latter on pleading guilty was finally admitted to the following children: Mrs. Jackson Temple and Mrs. Frank G. Comstock of San Francisco, Mrs. John C. Jackson, Mrs. William Janke of this city, John Lindsey of Giant and Basil Lindsey of Victoria, B. C., Mrs. G. Stoupin of Berkeley and Mrs. George Conrad of Stockton, sisters, also survive her.

POPULAR RICHMOND GIRL WILL BECOME A BRIDE

RICHMOND, Nov. 7.—Cards announcing pretty secret of two of the most popular young people of this city were placed in the mails yesterday morning by Miss Helen Winfree, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Winfree, who told of her approaching wedding to Stanford E. Philpot, the young Macdonald avenue merchant. The date of the ceremony was not given, but it is understood that it will take place during the winter season.

The bride-to-be has lived in Richmond for the past several years, where her parents have become known as one of the most prominent in the city. Miss Winfree is rated as one of the most talented of the local musical colony and has taken a leading part in many of the musical productions in this section. She numbers her friends by the hundreds and news of her approaching wedding will call forth a wealth of best wishes.

Mr. Philpot was for several years associated with the Philpot Druggoods company, and several months ago opened a very modern establishment of his own, and is known as one of the rising young business men of this city. He is a member of the leading clubs and fraternal organizations and is well liked by all who know him.

The plans proposed for the meetings were discussed at the Mount Hermon conference of the society last summer. Various leaders of the Epworth League will preside at the meetings.

SOAP ON HAIR CAUSES DANDRUFF; SCALP GETS DRY, HAIR FALLS OUT

Girls! Get a 25-Cent Bottle and Try a "Danderine
Hair Cleanse."

After washing your hair with soap always apply a little Danderine to the scalp to invigorate the hair and prevent dryness. Better still, use soap as sparingly as possible, and instead have a "Danderine Hair Cleanse." Just moisten a cloth with Danderine and draw it carefully through your hair, taking one strand at a time. This will remove dust, dirt and excessive oil. In a few moments you will be amazed: your hair will not only be clean, but it will be wavy, full and abundant, and possess an incomparable softness and lustre.

Besides cleansing and beautifying the hair, one application of Danderine dissolves every particle of dandruff, stimulates the scalp, stopping itching and falling hair. Danderine is to the hair what fresh showers of rain and sunshine are to vegetation.

It goes right to the roots, invigorates and strengthens them. Its exhilarating and life-producing properties cause the hair to grow long, strong and beautiful.

Men! Ladies! You can surely have lots of charming hair. Get a 25-cent bottle of Knowlton's Danderine from any drug store or toilet counter and try it.

TO SAVE WOMAN FROM THE GALLows IS AIM

HARTFORD, Conn., Nov. 7.—Mrs. Jessie J. Wakefield, condemned to die on the gallows for taking part in the murder of her husband, William C. Wakefield, has been transferred from the county jail at New Haven to the state prison at Wethersfield. She will remain in the woman's section until the time set for her execution, March 4 next.

The movement to secure commutation of sentence is gaining headway. Mrs. Thomas N. Hepburn, president of the Connecticut Women's Suffrage Association, stated today she believes she voiced the sentiment of all suffragists in Connecticut in saying she did not believe Mrs. Wakefield should be hanged.

THE PARIS

Oakland's new Suit and Coat House started business, determined to win favor on merit.

The Paris way, the new way, is a handicap that stores of the old methods will find can't be disregarded. Women are progressive. They want their garments with the Parisian flavor, but they will no longer submit to the high prices.

The Paris offers advantages that must appeal to every woman in Alameda county.

DEVELOPMENT CONVENTION CALLED

Boosters From This City and
All Over State Attend Meeting.

Water Question One of Most Important Subjects Under Discussion.

A crowded special train loaded to the doors with boosters from Oakland, Berkand other bay cities last night pulled out of the Santa Fe station for Hanford, where they today are attending the great Counties Convention of the California Development Board. Business men, professional men and officials were represented in the big gathering. The excursion was one of the largest ever to journey into the San Joaquin valley.

George C. Pardee, former governor of California, W. T. "Taft" and several members of the Merchants' Exchange, Commercial Club and Chamber of Commerce of Oakland were on hand when the special left. Several matters of particular interest to Oakland will be brought up.
Mayor Ralph of San Francisco was represented by his secretary, Edward Rainey, and Alexander Voglesang represented the San Francisco supervisors who, on account of water problem discussions to come up, are taking a keen interest in the session.

TO DISCUSS PROBLEMS.

HANFORD, Cal., Nov. 7.—"California water problems" was the theme of the annual convention of the counties committee of the California Development Board which Chairman James N. Gillett called to order here this morning. Robert Newton Lynch, formerly vice-president of the development board and now vice-president of the San Francisco Chamber of Commerce, spoke on "The Aims of Chambers of Commerce," and Chester H.
Rowell made an address on "Standing Commercial Organizations."

Three sessions are slated this afternoon and the one following being devoted to discussion of irrigation, reclamation, drainage and water conservation. William Munroeland of Los Angeles, L. L.
Dunnott of Modesto, Frank Adams, government investigator of California irrigation and others will discuss the water problem. Former Governor Pardee will explain the new water commission law.

The entertainment features include a banquet this evening, a sight-seeing trip, a musical and literary entertainment and a smoker.

"The Water Commission Law," one of the ominous addresses of the session on water problems, was made today by former Governor George C. Pardee of Oakland. He dealt with the irrigable areas of the San Joaquin and Sacramento valleys, power of water monopolies and who should control water, how the present law may be evaded and advocated the law now being proposed to control water rights.

FRIENDS SORROW FOR MRS. ROMUALDO PACHECO

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 7.—The funeral of Mrs. Romualdo Pacheco, the mother of Mrs. William S. Tevis, will be held at St. Luke's Episcopal church on Van Ness avenue at 1:30 o'clock this afternoon. Rev. Edward Morris will officiate at the service, which will be attended by the family and immediate friends. The interment, which will be private, will be at Oakland.

Mrs. Pacheco, who was Miss Mary

Tevis, died in 1842. She came to California when a young woman, and in 1853 married Romualdo Pacheco, son of Romualdo Pacheco the elder, at Sacramento.

Her husband, who held the office of State Treasurer at the time, after became the twelfth Governor of California, and was later elected to Congress from this state. He died in 1889.

Mrs. Pacheco is the author of several successful plays, among them being "In Cog," a farce which had a long run in

New York and in London. She had many friends in San Francisco and California, who mourn her death. She is survived by her daughter, Mrs. William

S. Tevis.

Although 71 years of age, Mrs. Pacheco had been in good health until her final sickness, which was brief. She had recently made an extended visit in New York. Four days before her death, the fiftieth anniversary of her marriage was celebrated with her family.

Society Elects Officers for the Ensuing Year; Fine Program Follows.

The St. Andrew's Society held its annual meeting last evening and elected the following officers for the ensuing year.

J. A. C. Macdonald, president; Alex
W. Anderson, vice-president; George S.
Nalsmith, financial secretary; George A.
Hall, treasurer, and Robert Dalziel Jr., recording secretary.

The following members were chosen as a board of trustees: A. Baird (retiring president), chairman; J. B. Low, Robert Dalziel Sr., William Patterson, J. A.
Smith, James P. Taylor, W. T. Smith and Robert Howden were chosen as a relief committee; Dr. A. K. Crawford, physician, and Robert Howden, librarian.

The election, which was made unanimous by the casting of the ballot by the secretary, a feat of song, speech-making by officers-elect and good cheer followed.

EX-MAYOR DAVIE TALKS.

The evening's program ended with an exceedingly interesting, instructive and entertaining talk by ex-Mayor John L.
Davie, the special guest of the evening, on Mexico as a land of incomparable opportunities, its rich and varied resources, fertility of the soil, wealth of its mineralized rocks; great productiveness of the waters of its rivers and bays of food fishes; characteristics of its people; what ex-President Diaz did for his country; the responsibilities of ex-President Taft and Standard Oil for Diaz's downfall and the troubles which followed the elevation of Madero to the Presidential chair; the cause of the present deplorable state of the unhappy country and the people and the reactionary agencies which are backing Huerta and his administration and first returning Mexico to the woe condition it was in fifty years ago before Diaz took the reins of government in hand and made it the most prosperous country on the continent.

DESCRIBES AMERICAN INDIGNITIES.

The speaker dwelt at considerable length on the sufferings and sacrifices and in-digities to which Americans have been subjected since Diaz was forced to flee the country, and he bitterly assailed Taft and Knox for their cold-hearted indifference to the appeals of American citizens for protection when their lives were in peril and their property was being confiscated. The comparisons drawn between American consuls and British and German consuls toward the citizens of their respective countries were very unfavorable to our representatives.

Davie and his three sons left Oakland for Mexico about twelve years ago. Some time since they were ordered out of the country in common with all other Americans at the point of a gun, being robbed of all their personal possessions and abandoning their homes and the valuable mines and other properties developed by them on the continent.
